

CONGRATULATIONS

In The Spotlight

In the Spotlight this quarter is a young man who just keeps giving. Walker Smith joined the NFJGTOUR in 2025 and has already played in 28 events winning three times with 17 top five finishes along with earning the 2025 Futures Tour Player of the Year Award and the Jack Nicklaus Sportsmanship Award

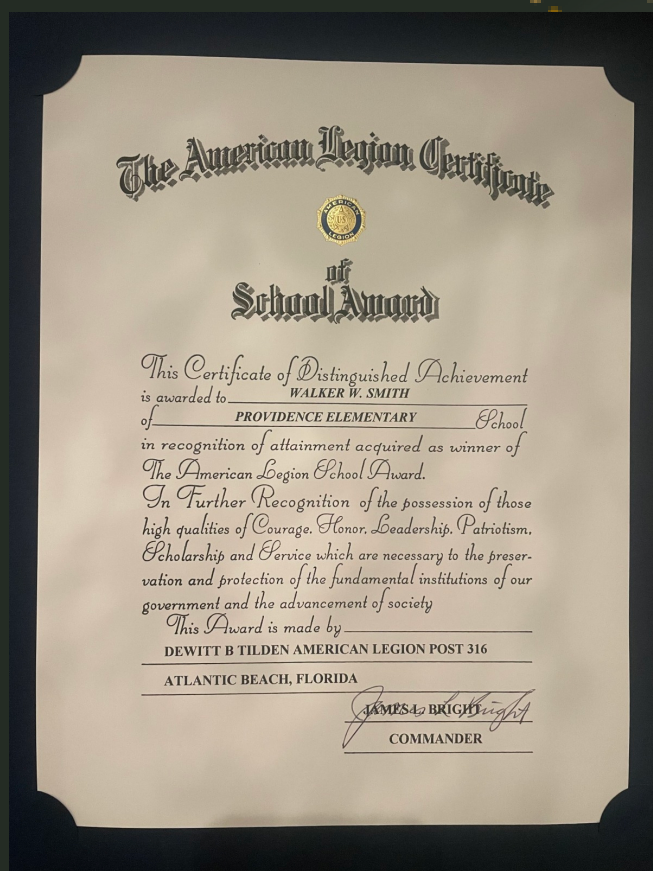

Walker helped to raise thousands of dollars during the annual 6:8 April Ministries Costa Rica Event in Fruit Cove Springs acting as an auctioneer assisted by Jaguar's personality Bryan Sexton to auction off football memorabilia. Walker visited Vista Landing (known for high crimes) with the Ron Armstrong's local group. He supported underprivileged kids by building beds and assisted with a community carnival.

In addition Walker delivered bread to local American Cancer Society hotel for cancer patients receiving treatment. During Christmas Walker joined the NFJG Foundation support for the Jim Furyk Foundation Christmas Drive, stuffing bags with food for the needy.
